WEDDING.

Kindersley-Collis.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Kuala Lumpur, July 20th.

The marriage took place yesterday at St Mark's Church of Mr R. C. M. Kindersley, second son of Capt H. W. C. Kindersley, late of the 29th Regiment, to Miss Margaret Collis, elder daughter of the late Major General Collis, C.B., 21st Punjabis. The Rev. P. N. Graham officiated.

The bride was given away by Mr Gough and Mr R. W. Munro was the best man.

The bride wore a gown of soft white satin, trimmed with silk and embroidered, with lace in thick folds.

The bridesmaids were Misses Nutt and Miss Wise. Master Aldworth was the page.

A reception was held at Highbank, the residence of Mr and Mrs Nutt. Mr W. F. Nutt proposed the health of the happy pair, and the bridegroom replied, proposing the health of Mr and Mrs Nutt.

The honeymoon will be spent at Bukit Kutu.

Mr R. C. M. Kindersley is one of the best known and most respected planters in the F. M. S. and is in Residence at the beautiful bungalow on Reko Hill Estate, which commands a view of "an ocean of rubber." Mr Kindersley came out to Selangor in 1893 and joined the Brothers Meikle on Wardieburn Estate. He and his brother opened up Inch Kenneth, and later Paradise Estate, having also charge of Balgownie.
