MALAYANS AT HOME.

Mr. G. Goldsack May Go To Rhodesia.

(From Our Own Correspondent).

London, May 3.
Their friends in Malaya will be interested to hear that Mr. G. Goldsack, formerly manager of the Runnymede Hotel, Penang, and Mrs. Goldsack are at present living in a delightful small country house, at Ringwood, in Hampshire. Mrs. Goldsack's health has greatly improved since her arrival in England. I understand that they may soon be going out to Rhodesia, though there is also a possibility that Mr. Goldsack may set himself up in business somewhere in this country.

He told me the other day that Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Demuth, who, of course, are very well-known in Singapore, will shortly be taking over the house at Ringwood, on their return from Italy.

Many people in Malaya will remember Mr. G. L. Newman, who is something of an authority on the Cocos Islands. He is at present with the printing firm of De La Rue, in London.

Rumour has it that Mr. P. M. Bendall, formerly of Kapar Estate, Perak, is about to set up a hairdressing establishment in, or near, the Strand.

Mr. J. S. Henderson, of Braemar Estate, near Kuala Lumpur, has arrived in London on leave, and will probably spend the greater part of his holiday here.

Among recent callers at Malaya House have been Mr. G. P. Livett, of the F.M.S. Police; Mr. W. Hinger, of Malacca, who is making his headquarters at Bristol; Mr. J. D. Howell, Perak, whose address is at 22, Philbeach Gardens, S.W.5; Mr. D. R. Waters of Singapore; Mr. S. H. Potter, also of Singapore, who is staying at 28, Oakdene Drive, Tolworth, Surrey; and Mr. and Mrs. Beatty, who live in Dublin.
