On his bullet-riddled body was found pinned a note in Chinese which read "to destroy labour thief."

The village is about one and a half miles off the main road just outside Kajang which is fifteen miles south of Kuala Lumpur.

The kepala was sitting alone on a bench on the five-foot way. Inside the shop was a cluster of customers.

Six or seven men suddenly appeared. They were all masked and carried weapons.

After the gangsters had gone the body of the kepala was found outside the shop.
